

6th Annual Ladies Night to Benefit Loaves and Fishes

By Jini Clare

November 8, 2012

With the grueling election season ending and the hectic holiday season getting ready to start, the 6th annual “It’s Still All About Me Ladies Night” in Naperville will offer women a brief respite and a chance to enjoy a relaxing evening with their friends.

This year, this popular girls’ night out will also benefit Loaves and Fishes Community Pantry through a series of gift drawings and a silent auction.

It’s Still All About Me Ladies Night will be held on Thursday, November 15, from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Main Street Promenade, Suites 231, 241, and 251. The Main Street Promenade is located at 55 S. Main Street in downtown Naperville.

Two local dental offices, Innovative Orthodontic Centers and Naperville Dental Specialists and General Oral Health Care, have brought together 29 participating businesses to provide an evening of fun. Guests will enjoy delicious appetizers, refreshing drinks, holiday shopping, and special discounts. Festive fashions will be modeled throughout the evening, and Scott Mackay, the morning radio host at 95.9 The River, will be the emcee. Admission is free.

According to Dr. Anthony LaVacca, “When I heard that Loaves and Fishes lost one of their major sponsors this year, my heart dropped. I thought to myself, How can I help the families in Naperville that are experiencing hard times? Food is something we take for granted. We are hoping that this event will raise money to help those families.”

Charles McLimans, executive director/CEO of Loaves and Fishes Community Pantry added, “Loaves and Fishes is grateful to Dr. LaVacca, Dr. Ibrahim, and their staffs for all they do to help our families. Whether serving as a celebrity bartender or collecting school supplies each year, they are always happy to support our work. All the women in our office are excited about It’s Still All About Me, and I know it will be a special evening demonstrating the power of community.”

In addition to the two dental offices, participating businesses include Advanced Health of Naperville, Ameriprise Financial, Belgio’s Catering, Blackfinn American Saloon, Bloom Women’s Network, Bodi Bronze, Bri Zan Couture, Cafe n Play, Coldwater Creek-The Spa, Dean’s, Enchantments, Hugo’s Frog Bar and Fish House, Jet’s Pizza, Le Chocolat, Little Luxuries, Maggiano’s Little Italy, Naperville Magazine, Naperville Mom’s Network, Real Housewives of Naperville, Shinto, Stella and Dot, Sullivan’s Steakhouse, Tasting deVine, The Bar Method, Ultimate ChiroCare, Votre Vu, and Zano Salons.

Naperville Dental Specialists and General Oral Health Care and Innovative Orthodontic centers comprise teams of highly trained dentists and offer a full spectrum of services for all ages.
